Heartland Klezmerim

Klezmer (from Yiddish קלימז-יילק) is a musical tradition of the Ashkenazic Jews of Eastern Europe and further developed by immigrants in the United States.

Heartland Klezmerim, Michigan's only traditional klezmer band, celebrates the release of their debut CD "Gut Morgn". The band has spent years performing weddings, bar mitzvahs, Hanukkah services, dances and concerts around their home state.

Heartland Klezmerim's repertoire consists of popular, traditional klezmer songs. The instrumental line-up is violin, trumpet, banjo, string bass and drums with band members alternating on dobro, mandolin, and classical guitar. The band members have many years of performance and ensemble experience among them, from symphony to folk and beyond.

Heartland Klezmerim are united in their love of traditional klezmer and hope you the listener enjoy their new recording.

David Klein - trumpet Susanne Garber - violin
Drew Howard - banjo, mandolin, dobro
Chris Hamilton - string bass Ben Godoshian - drums
